

SCENE 19

JANICE

By the middle of the day on Wednesday, I'm coordinating menus for 7,000 people.

(starts reporting) Ladies and Gentlemen, the Rotary Club is looking for some fish dishes. And we have a bunch of German passengers down at the Moose Club who'd like to try elk... No, sorry. That's the Elk's Club that's looking for moose. Sorry, I'm new.

BEULAH

Well if you won't try cod tongue, we got cheeseburgers—or we got hot dogs too—and there's tuna casserole over there—or I could make you up a bologna sandwich?

KEVIN J.

(to KEVIN T.)

Are there vegetables in Canada?

KEVIN T.

(to BEULAH)

We're vegetarians.

KEVIN J.

I converted him.

KEVIN T.

Anyway, I notice this other passenger who hasn't eaten anything at all –

KEVIN J.

Kevin's suddenly in everyone else's business.

KEVIN T.

So, I notify our hosts.

RABBI (ACTOR 7)

No. No, thank you. Please. I'm fine.

BEULAH

Turns out he's an Orthodox Jewish Rabbi and he only eats Kosher food. Now, we have all kinds of people living in Newfoundland: Protestants, Baptists, Catholics, Salvation Army-ists—but not a lot of Jewish people.

FLIGHT ATTENDANT (ACTOR 3) ✱

Ladies and Gentlemen, please fasten your seat belts. Looks like we'll be making an unexpected landing in Gander, New Found Land.

The PASSENGERS start murmuring restlessly. The FLIGHT ATTENDANT turns to the audience, and the PASSENGERS freeze.

Anybody in the business knows when you set down in Gander, it's for an emergency. Now, we don't know what's going on, but the Captain tells us to keep everyone from panicking.

The FLIGHT ATTENDANT turns back, as the PASSENGERS unfreeze.

Tray tables up, please. We will be dimming the lights in the cabin. Pushing the lightbulb button will turn your reading light on; however, pushing the flight attendant button will not turn your flight attendant on.
